The Shrine of North America is known for its colorful parades, circuses and clowns. But there is also a serious side to this international fraternity of approximately 525,000 men belonging to 191 Shrine Centers, or chapters, throughout North America. For more than 85 years, the Shrine has operated a network of specialized hospitals (free of charge) that treat children with orthopaedic problems, burns, and spinal cord injuries, up to their 18th birthday.
